The Association of Baccalaureate Social Work Program Directors

The Association of Baccalaureate Social Work Program Directors, Inc. is an association of BSW Program Administrators, Faculty, Field Directors, and others dedicated to the promotion of excellence in Baccalaureate social work education.

Our Members

BPD membership is open to all social work educators and friends of the profession. Our members come from colleges and universities all across the country and work in a number of capacities within university, college, and community systems. BPD members often retain their membership even after retirement and serve as emeritus members of the association.

Benefits

- JBSW, a bi-annual journal focusing on excellence and scholarship in baccalaureate social work education
- UPDATE, the association's quarterly newsletter
- Discounts at BPD Annual Conferences featuring leading experts in social work education, research, and advocacy
- Continuing Education credits for educational sessions at the BPD Annual Conference

- Discounts on conference and business travel
- Access to members-only communications from the Association
- Participation in BPD Membership meetings
- High visibility for social work advocacy activities: BPD participates in coalitions and organizations that promote advancement of the profession and legislation that improves the lives of its constituents and their clients

BPD seeks to provide leadership in BSW education through mentoring, advocacy, and support for research and curriculum development. To that end, BPD participates in a number of coalitions and task forces, including:

- ANSWER (Action Network for Social Work Education and Research)
- IASWR (Institute for the Advancement of Social Work Research)
- ISP (Influencing State Policy)
- The National Gerontology Leadership Coalition

BPD also works closely with our sister organizations:

- The Council on Social Work Education (CSWE)
- The Group for the Advancement of Doctoral Education (GADE)
- The National Association of Deans and Directors of Schools of Social Work (NADD)
- The National Association of Social Workers (NASW)
- The Society for Social Work and Research (SSWR)
